

Combined Harvesters Ltd

Setting Sustainability Standards

www.combinedharvesters.com

Tel :0845 838 7542

C.o.S.H.H Assessment 2 June 2010

Product	FloodSax®
Supplier	Combined Harvesters Ltd
Intended Use	Disposable flood bag
	Not hazardous to the Environment	Not flammable	Considered not to be a skin irritant

Possible Health Effects with use of Sodium Polyacrylate

Eyes	Not considered an irritant under normal conditions.
Skin	Not a skin irritant
Inhalation	Not a respiratory irritant under in normal usage.
Ingestion	Causes irritation of mouth, throat and digestive tract.

First Aid Measures

Eye Contact	If difficulties occur, rinse immediately with water for at least 15 minutes. Get medical attention urgently.
Skin Contact	Wash with soap and water or a specified cleansing cream.
Inhalation	If difficulties occur move into an open area with fresh air.
Ingestion	Get medical attention. Give water to drink. DO NOT induce vomiting. In case of spontaneous vomiting, ensure vomit can drain freely to avoid suffocation.

Control measures to be adopted when using the substance

- 1 PPE none required
- 2 Users to wear disposable gloves if the bags have been contaminated.
- 3 Users advised to wear waterproof footwear and overalls.

General Handling, Storage and Transporting of substances

Operatives should follow basic health and hygiene procedures i.e. washing hands before meals, eating in designated areas etc.

Handling of the substance should be done with care.

Avoid ignition sources.

Keep the substance in the original container. Keep dry and at room temperature.

Can be stored with other substances without fear of contamination or harm.

Keep in original container for transportation. Do not use leaking or damaged containers.

Britannia House, Dock Road, Birkenhead, Wirral. CH411DF